

6. Application

Application of this HSE specification for load restraint and transportation is mandatory for to all cargo activities in Company operations regardless of weather they are performed by Company personnel, contractors or sub-contractors